

The “65 / 13” Sticker

Illinois community college advocates are wearing a sticker that depicts a state funding issue. The sticker displays the number “65” in the top half and the number “13” in the bottom half.

65

In fall 2010, public community colleges enrolled 383,960 credit-seeking students (total headcount), while public universities enrolled 204,781 students. The number “65” indicates that Illinois community colleges enroll 65% of the state’s public college credit students.

13

In FY 2010, public community colleges received $412.6 million in state support, out of a total of $3.2 billion in state higher education funding. The number “13” indicates that community colleges receive 13% of Illinois’ higher education dollars.

Message

Community colleges enroll 65% of the state’s public higher education students and receive 13% of the total higher education funding.

Data: Illinois Community College Board